16	In its response to ECF 1757, Google shall SHOW CAUSE why the Court should not order
17	it established that the 62 classes and interfaces in three API packages (and only those 62) were
18	technically necessary to use the Java language and that copying those was fair use, without
19	prejudice to either side's other arguments, pro or con, as to the 37 APIs. Also, please comment
20	on whether all expert reports should be adjusted to incorporate this holding (but only this
